Westmoreland-Fayette Workforce Investment Board Selects Colin Sherbondy as new Programs Assistant

The Westmoreland-Fayette Workforce Investment Board (WFWIB) has selected Colin Sherbondy as its new Programs Assistant to provide needed assistance on various workforce development programs and to staff.

As the Programs Assistant, Sherbondy will be responsible for assisting with the coordination of meetings, events, special projects, and other assignments. He will additionally coordinate the collection of applications, materials, and timesheets for program participants and assist with program data entry. Sherbondy's other responsibilities include assisting with program reporting, monitoring, and development.

“As an entry-level position, there is so much room for the Programs Assistant to grow and learn,” shared Executive Director Janet Ward. “We are happy to welcome Colin and are excited to see what he brings to the team!”

Sherbondy is a recent graduate of Seton Hill University, where he received a Bachelor of Arts degree in General Studies with minors in Chemistry and English. During his time at Seton Hill University, Sherbondy earned recognition on the Deans List for several semesters and worked as a Sales Associate for Sheetz. In this previous role, he gained customer service experience, developed his organizational skills, and cohesively worked with a team to ensure the best experience for customers.

“I am so grateful to accept this position here at the WFWIB,” shared Sherbondy. “I intend to fulfill the responsibilities of this position to the best of my abilities and grow in both my professional and personal development. I am so excited to be a part of this team and create a better workforce for all.”

Colin Sherbondy will be involved in WFWIB projects such as the organization's Healthcare Industry Partnership, Manufacturing Industry Partnership, Teacher In the Workplace, Experience Works! PLUS internship program, and more.
